Eddie Carroll passed away April 6th. This hour is presented in memory of Mr. Carroll whose life made this a happier, friendlier, world.

Eddie Carroll's achievements have spanned every area of show business. The Broadway stage, motion pictures, television, and his award winning one-man show Jack Benny "Laughter In Bloom". The San Francisco Chronicle says, "Eddie Carroll is Jack Benny". Eddie has been profiled in front page major newspapers and magazines, on TV's CNN and ABC, plus numerous radio interviews. Mr. Carroll doesn't do a mere impression of Jack Benny, but he portrays Jack Benny. Eddie Carroll has appeared in over 200 commercials plus doing voice over in over 100 radio and television spots. He has worked with the greats of show business, including Jack Benny, Kelsey Grammer, Cary Grant, Marlene Detrich. Since 1973 Mr. Carroll has been the voice of Jiminy Cricket for Walt Disney. www.EddieCarroll.com 4/17/10

Chris Carter is a Graduate of Oxford University in England with degrees in Economics and Philosophy. His Parapsychology and the Skeptics has become the skeptics worst nightmare. It presents a scientific re-evaluation of how science views the existence of ESP by using philosophical principals to argue the validity of parapsychology as a science. Science and the Near-Death Experience examines How Consciousness Survives Death. Carter expands on the work begun by Dr. Raymond Moody. The skeptics are as dogmatic in treating assumptions as facts as true believers who accept everything paranormal. Keep an open curious mind and you'll discover a new scientific frontier. www.ScienceandtheNearDeathExperience.com

Ted Twietmeyer is a former defense contractor who has spent over 25 years working with numerous government agencies including almost all of the NASA installations. Ted has analyzed over 15,000 of NASA's mars photos and made stAartling discoveries. You'll learn What NASA isn't Telling You About Mars. His 371 page flip-book on CD-Rom is like no other book I've ever read. There are 250 images that clearly show building and mechanical artifacts, stalactites and stalagmites about 25 feet from the camera and much more. Mr. Twietmeyer's images were all taken on the surface of mars with rover cameras. Why has NASA been unwilling to share or discuss these photos that dispel many of our pre-conceived ideas? Why have so many Russian and American space missions simply vanished? www.bookonmars.info 1/16/10
